ENDLESS POSSIBILITIES

Beauty & Sustainability

ECONYL® is a sustainable nylon material made from recycled fishing nets, fabric scraps and industrial plastic waste. It conserves natural resources, promotes a circular economy and generates a lower carbon footprint compared to other flooring materials.

SynSisal® with 100% regenerated ECONYL® offers a sustainable alternative to natural sisal with contract-grade specifications.

rPET

look-a-like^{OF SISAL}

A sisal look-a-like floor covering, suitable for both indoor and outdoor use, with yarn made from 100% recycled plastic bottles - 50 bottles are needed to produce 1kg of rPET yarn, which is enough for 1m² of rPET.

This innovative solution is both efficient and sustainable and better yet, rPET boasts a softly spun texture that feels great underfoot.

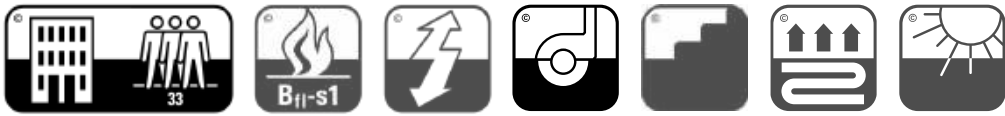

The outstanding quality provides exceptional longevity leading to less frequent replacements and lower resource usage.

BOUCLE

Refined and timeless, this tight loop bouclé offers rich texture and supreme durability. Hotel lobbies, boutique businesses, offices and residences will benefit from the organic beauty, low maintenance and neutral colorways.
